The undersigned interviewed student [REDACTED] who stated that he was stressed out and was in the building trying to relax. At first Student [REDACTED] denied that he had been using the computer in room 214 to watch porn but later but later admitted to doing so. Sergeant Oliveira asked student [REDACTED] to log back onto the computer where he observed that student [REDACTED] had been looking at a porn site by the name of "PornHub". The undersigned observed that student [REDACTED] jeans had buttons on the front instead of a zipper and the buttons were undone.

Student [REDACTED] denied that he was ever masturbating in the room while watching the porn site but did admit that he was watching the porn site on the large screen in the classroom. Some of the window shades were drawn allowing passersby to see into the room.

Officer Chung interviewed resident students [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who stated that they never got a good look at the person in the window and assumed that he was a white male. These students also stated that they never saw student [REDACTED] masturbating but assume he was because he was watching porno.

That based on the fact that the complainants never saw student [REDACTED] masturbating. The undersigned could not conclude that a crime had been committed. Student [REDACTED] was advised that the incident would be documented and the incident referred to Student Conduct.

On the date of 08/29/2013 at approx. 11:30P.M. this officer was dispatched to Vance Hall on the call of a resident exposing himself in his window to people in front of Vance Hall (the suspects window faces the Vance Quad). Upon arrival I spoke to R.A. [REDACTED] who stated he was working in the front lobby when he heard a group of people yelling and jeering at a person in the building. Upon [REDACTED] stepping outside he looked at the first floor area of Vance Hall to witness a resident student [REDACTED] exposing his naked body and genitals in the window at the group of people cheering him on. Also with [REDACTED] was R.A. [REDACTED] who also witnessed the incident and helped disperse the group of people from in front of Vance Hall. R.As [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both tried to find and approach [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] about the incident but he had left the room and avoided them (please see attached written statements from both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]).

Upon this officers arrival with officer Stephanie Mcallister after receiving the information searched the area for [REDACTED] but he had [REDACTED] not returned to his room and was no where to be seen in the North Quad area. No further action was taken at this time and R.A. [REDACTED] said he would contact CCSU Police Department if [REDACTED] returned and his inappropriate antics continued.

On October 31, 2014 at approximately 11:08 P.M., I was dispatched to Carroll Hall on a suspicious person complaint. Upon arrival I met the complainant, CCSU Resident Student [REDACTED]. States, at approximately 7:30P.M., she was heading out to an athletic meeting and was walking by Carroll Hall near Beecher Hall when she heard someone call her out from the second story window of Carroll Hall. Looking to see who called her out she noticed an unknown white male standing away from the window and exposing himself by holding his penis out of the window where [REDACTED] could view it. Noticing what [REDACTED] had witnessed, she continued to walk away from the scene in order to avoid any further confrontation with the subject, and went on to her meeting.

After her meeting, [REDACTED] came back to Carroll Hall to report the incident to the Resident Assistant (RA) on duty, [REDACTED]. After reporting her complaint to [REDACTED] he then called campus police.

[REDACTED] could not identify the subject; she could only identify him as a white male. There were no other witnesses to the incident. After talking with [REDACTED] stated that this is the second time this incident occurred. The first incident occurred on the morning of October 29th but, was never reported. A search of the area was conducted and found that the incident occurred in the men's bathroom room 231. [REDACTED] said that he will report the incident to his supervisor and an

On 1/23/2015 at about 9:45 p.m. CCSU Professor Alecia Dager came down to CCSU Police Headquarters accompanied by Sarah Dodd from the CCSU Office of Victims Advocacy and Violence Prevention. Professor Dager wanted to report an unusual incident involving CCSU resident student [REDACTED]

Professor Dager met with the undersigned and Lt. Dercote and told us that she had CCSU student [REDACTED] in one of her psychology classes last semester. Professor Dager told us that on 1/13/2015 at about 1:40 p.m. [REDACTED] came to her office in Marcus White room 203, during office hours inquiring about a class that she was teaching this semester.

Professor Dager told us that while she was conversing with [REDACTED] about him getting in to one of her classes this semester, she gave [REDACTED] a syllabus and noticed that the front of his pants (fly) was open and his penis was visible. Professor Dager told us that she acted as if nothing was wrong and when they finished the conversation, [REDACTED] shook her hand, said thank you and left only to return a few seconds later to tell her that she looked beautiful. Professor Dager thought that it was a mistake that [REDACTED] penis was visible and he did not notice.

THE UNDERSIGNED, AN INVESTIGATOR HAVING BEEN DULY SWORN DEPOSES AND SAYS THAT: I AM THE WRITER OF THE ATTACHED POLICE REPORT PERTAINING TO THIS INCIDENT NUMBER. Professor Dager told us that the next day (1/14/2015), she found the syllabus under her office door with the words "call me" and phone number [REDACTED] written on it and assumed that it was from [REDACTED] even though there was not a name on it. Professor Dager told us that she didn't notice if his penis was visible when [REDACTED] walked into her office on 1/13/2015 and did not notice him fumbling with the fly area of his pants. Professor Dager told us that [REDACTED] was standing next to her about a foot away on her right and she was eye level with his pants fly area as she was sitting and [REDACTED] was standing. Professor Dager described the pants as made of a cloth material like athletic pants.

Professor Dager told us that a week later on 1/20/2015 at about 3:15 p.m. [REDACTED] returned to her office and told her that he could not get in to her class but wanted to minor in psychology so could she tell him about it. Professor Dager told us that she started to talk to [REDACTED] about Psychology but also believes that he was just trying to have a conversation with her.

Professor Dager told us that she does not know how it happened but [REDACTED] fly was open and his penis was visible. Professor Dager told us that she acted as if nothing was wrong and continued talking to [REDACTED] about Psychology and told him that she was only teaching at CCSU for this school year. Professor Dager told us that [REDACTED] was standing next to her in the same location as the previous week. Professor Dager told us that [REDACTED] penis was not visible when he walked into her office and she did not see him manipulate his pants to expose his penis. Professor Dager told us that [REDACTED] was wearing the same type of pants as the previous week.

Professor Dager told us that she feels un secure because her office is in an area of Marcus White that is not heavily traveled or readily visible. Professor Dager told us that she had not seen or heard from [REDACTED] since he took her class last semester. Professor told us that on 1/13/2015 [REDACTED] was in her office for about 5 to 10 minutes and that on 1/20/2015 he was in her office for a shorter amount of time.

Professor Dager told us that at first she thought the first incident on 1/13/2015 was an accident but then when it happened again on 1/20/2015, she believes it may have been intentional, telling the undersigned and Lt. Dercote, " how could he not know" and "there's no way it can happen twice".

Professor Dager told us that she immediately texted her friend on 1/13/2015 and told her about the incident. Professor Dager was able to provide the undersigned with a copy of the texts which were then filed with this report. Professor Dager told us that she was unsure if she wanted to press any criminal charges at this time. Professor Dager then wrote and signed a sworn voluntary statement attesting to what she had just told us.

The undersigned provided Professor Dager with a Victim's Services card and explained to Dager that counseling services were available if she needed them. Professor Dager was also informed that if she ever felt unsafe on campus she should call the CCSU Police immediately and that the CCSU Police also provides an escort service. Professor Dager was also advised to put the CCSU Police Departments phone number on her cell phone speed dial.

On 1/23/2014 at about 12 p.m. the undersigned contacted [REDACTED] on his cell phone and asked him if he could come down to the CCSU Police Department to talk with me. [REDACTED] further told us that he was taking a design class that he really didn't like and wanted to switch to one of her classes but it didn't work out. [REDACTED] told us that he was wearing a pair of loose fitting "Stacey Adams" pajama bottoms. [REDACTED] told us that he wasn't sure if they were buttoned but he did not notice. [REDACTED] told us that he wears these pants all the time and has never gotten any complaints telling us that his roommate has seen him in the pants numerous times and would have told him if something was wrong. [REDACTED] told us that he does not wear underwear when he is wearing these pants because they are soft and comfortable.

[REDACTED] was asked how did he know it was Professor Dager that made the complaint and he told us that he hasn't visited anyone else. [REDACTED] told us that he was shocked at the complaint because he wears these pants all the time. [REDACTED] told us that the pants have a button fly and that he is unsure whether the button was secured at the time of the incidents. [REDACTED] was asked about the syllabus and he told us that he slid the syllabus under Professor Dager's door and wanted her to call him so that he could tell her that he was unable to take her class. [REDACTED] told us that the phone number on the syllabus was an App phone number. When asked why he used an App phone number, [REDACTED] told us that he has a jealous girlfriend who is always checking his phone.

[REDACTED] told us that he has been in a committed relationship the past 8 months and that is why he shocked at the complaint. [REDACTED] told us that when he told Professor Dager that she looked pretty, he was just being cordial. The notes that [REDACTED] left under their door were basically apology letters saying that he was sorry for looking at [REDACTED] while she was in the bath room (both notes are attached to the report). Both complainants wrote in their written voluntary statements that after the above incident they feel violated and that their peace of mind has been taken. They further stated that they don't feel the same comfort that they had prior to this incident.

The undersigned went to Carroll Hall accompanied by the complainants to reenact the event. The undersigned asked [REDACTED] to go into the 3rd floor bath room and act as if she had taken a shower. Then the undersigned went down on his hands and knees and looked through the vent that is located on the lower part of the wall. The undersigned could see [REDACTED] entirely when she exited the shower into the common area.

After interviewing the complainants the undersigned made an attempt to locate the suspect [REDACTED]. The undersigned went to his dorm room located in [REDACTED] and knocked but no one answered. At 2130 hours, the undersigned made a second attempt to locate the suspect. The undersigned located the suspect and informed him that he is under investigation for the above Peeping Tom incident. At that time, he stated that he only did it once and he is sorry for doing it. The undersigned asked him to refrain from going up to the third floor until the investigation is complete so that the complainants will feel at ease. He agreed not to visit the third floor until the investigation is complete. He was also warned by the undersigned not to have any further contact with the complainants because this could worsen the situation. The undersigned informed him that this incident will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for review. The undersigned talked with [REDACTED] about the incident, she stated that she doesn't want [REDACTED] to be arrested but would rather have the Office of Student Conduct handle the matter.

On 4/22/15 at 1538 hours, Officer Lollar, Sgt. Oliveira, Sgt. Billings and I were dispatched to Burritt Library on a suspicious person complaint.

Upon arrival, I met with Officer Lollar who informed me that we were looking for a transgender black male dressed in a short blue dress with a floral print on it. The black male was reported to be on the second floor. Ofc. Lollar and I began to search each floor while Sgt. Billings stood by the library exit. Ofc. Lollar also informed me that the complaint was received from an anonymous person. According to the complaint from the anonymous individual, he reported that the black male masturbated in front of him while he was in the stacks located on the second floor of the library.

Sgt. Oliveira then reported over the radio, that he had located the black male on the 8th floor. Sgt. Billings, Ofc. Lollar and I then responded to the 8th floor where we met with Sgt. Oliveira. Sgt. Oliveira was speaking to the alleged suspect who denied that he was the person we were looking for and gave the name [REDACTED]. Dispatch could not find a student by that name in our student information system. The alleged suspect then presented a CCSU Blue-chip card with the name of [REDACTED] on it, which he claimed was his twin brother. Sgt Oliveira noticed a wet/sticky substance on the floor and questioned the alleged about it. The alleged claimed he was coughing up mucus. The alleged admitted later that it was

On 1/31/16 at approx 1:15PM Detective Samuda and this writer were dispatched and responded to Gallaudet Hall to speak with the above complainant. Upon arrival the complainant stated that while she was showering in Room# 2300000, adjacent to her room, a white male, approx 25-30 years old with blonde hair wearing a blue hoodie and blue baseball cap, entered the bathroom and pulled open the shower curtain as she was showering. The complainant stated the male then began taking pictures of her in the shower stall with his black i-Phone 6 cell phone.

The complainant stated that she attempted to pull the curtain closed at which time it fell down from the fixture and the male fled the bathroom.

The complainant stated she didn't know the individual but thought she'd be able to recognise him if she were to see him again.

Detective Samuda interviewed two women who were in the day room down the hall upon our arrival.

It should be noted that the bathroom door's locking mechanism was rendered ineffective by scotch tape leaving it constantly unsecure all the time. The complainant stated the door has been in that condition for weeks.

This writer removed the tape from the door frame, then checked the residence hall's hallways and surrounding area with Detective Samuda for a suspect without success at this time.
